

FREE SALVATION ARMY BACK-TO-SCHOOL HEALTH FAIR AND GOSPEL CON- CERT

The Salvation Army will hold the 3rd annual back-to-school health fair in West Pullman to help families prepare for early school start in August. The event will take place on Saturday, July 23, Noon to 7 pm, at Cooper Park, 117th and Ada Street, Chicago. Screenings will be available until 5 pm. This free health fair will not only provide free back-to-school physicals, but also a variety of free health screenings for adults. Grammy Award-Nominated Joshua's Troop and popular Billboard gospel recording artist Tony Tidwell & Uncommon Favor will headline a rousing and inspirational day-long line-up of gospel performers, including New Directions, Lamont Davis and Divine Purpose, and The Salvation Army Kroc Corps Singing Company. More than 1,200 families attended this event last year.

Even more are expected this year for a fun-filled day in the park with expanded entertainment and activities. Physicals and health screenings will be provided by the Cook County Health Department and the Chicago Christian Center Mobile Clinic. Personalities from media sponsor WYLL 1160-AM, Chicago's Christian Talk, will broadcast live at the event.
